

DWELLINGUP TO NARROGIN RAIL TRAIL

Sources: © OpenStreetMap contributors; Department of Biodiversity, Conservation and Attractions; Rail Trails WA; Trails WA. GDA2020. Created by WestCycle in collaboration with Rail Trails WA, 2026. Visit www.westcycle.org.au/rail-trails for more information.

From the jarrah forest at Dwellingup, through the rolling hills of Boddington to the numbat haven of Dryandra Woodland and on to Narrogin, this trail will link one of WA's award winning trail towns to the Wheatbelt.

127km total length
11km built /
9% complete

Passes through: Shire of Boddington, Shire of Cuballing, Shire of Murray, Shire of Narrogin, Shire of Wandering, Shire of Williams

- This trail (proposed)
- Other proposed rail trails
- Existing sections of this trail
- Existing rail trails
- Rail trail towns
- Railway corridors
- Other long trails